Leading School Business Forward

3 Reasons to Join ASBO Today

1. Advance Your Career

Professional Development
You'll find professional development targeted specifically to meet your needs. Members receive discounted registration and come from around the globe to share best practices, learn from recognized leaders in the field of education and business management, and get the tools they need to be more effective and efficient school business leaders.

Career Central
Take advantage of ASBO's Career Central—fill a position by posting your vacancy, add your confidential resume to discover new opportunities, explore resources for building your personal brand, and more.

Certification
ASBO's Certified Administrator of School Finance and Operations® (SFO®) defines the essential skills and knowledge that every effective school business professional should possess. Earning this certification demonstrates that you have the knowledge and skills necessary to succeed and builds public confidence in your school's fiscal responsibility.

2. Get Recognized

ASBO recognizes excellence through awards and recognition programs.

- The Certificate of Excellence in Financial Reporting (COE)
  for excellence in accounting and reporting
- The Meritorious Budget Awards (MBA)
  for excellence in budget presentation
- The Pinnacle Awards
  for implementation of practices, policies, and innovative ideas
- The Eagle Awards
  for exemplary school business leadership
- Bridges to the Future Scholarship to provide opportunities for new and aspiring school business officials

3. Make Valuable Connections

Gain full access to ConnectEd, ASBO's exclusive members-only networking community and searchable resource library. Connect with other members, exchange ideas by posting questions and sharing answers, and engage in ongoing conversations about current issues in school business management.
