Angela D. Peterman To Serve as New President of ASBO International

Reston, VA – January 12, 2009 – Angela D. Peterman, RSBS, Executive Director of the Oregon Association of School Business Officials in Salem, Oregon, is the new president of the Board of Directors for the Association of School Business Officials International (ASBO). Peterman, who was elected to the position in October 2008, has served on the ASBO board since 2005. Her one-year term as president began on January 1, 2009.

"School business officials can no longer remain the silent partner in education. No other organization is better positioned to ensure our success than ASBO International," said Peterman.

ASBO board member Erin K. Green, MBA, RSBA, Director of Business Services for Greendale School District in Greendale, Wisconsin, was elected in October 2008 to serve as vice president for this year.

Two new members were also elected to the ASBO board in October: Shirley A. Broz, CPA, RSBA, Executive Director of Finance for Rockwood School District in Eureka, Missouri, and Ron McCulley, CPPB, RSBO, Assistant Director of Purchasing for Douglas County School District in Castle Rock, Colorado.
